SHRI M. VINCENT :

Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state :

(a) what is the progress made by Government in carrying out the census relating to the number of handlooms in the country and by when the work in this regard is likely to be completed;

(b) what is the current data available with regard to the number of handlooms in the country at present, state-wise;

(c) whether it is a fact that the Textile Committee was asked to carry out a survey regarding the number of handlooms in U.P.; and

(d) what are the roles and objectives of the National Handloom Development Corporation and how far it has been able to achieve its objectives since the inception of the Corporation ?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES (SHRI S. KRISHNA KUMAR) : (a) The schedules for collection of data from households in regard to census of handloom along with instruction to the enumerators have been finalised and sent to States for printing. Since the work will have to be essentially done by the State Governments involving covering of households spread over wide areas and tabulation of data at the state level, it may not be possible to precisely indicate the time by which the work will be completed.

(b) Statement showing number of handlooms statewise is attached (see below).

(c) The Market Research Wing of the Textile Committee had been entrusted with the task of carrying out survey of decentralised sector of Handlooms, Powerlooms etc. in U.P. to find out its yarn requirement in various details so that the U.P. State Textile Corporation can accordingly plan their production programme of yarn manufacture.

(d) The National Handloom Development Corporation has been set up with the main objective of supplying raw materials like yarn and dyes & chemicals to handloom weavers. During the first two years of its operation, the Corporation has opened yarn depots at Guwahati, Bhagalpur & Biharsharif. The Corporation is also supplying yarn to the handloom agencies in the State of Maharashtra, Kerala, Karnataka, Gujarat, Pondicherry, etc. It is also supplying dyes & chemicals to the handloom agencies by procuring them directly from manufacturers. It has reached a turnover of nearly Rs. 7 crores in 1985-86.
